Gear Swap Let's Go Diving!

Winter is over and Spring has sprung! Time to start diving! Adventure Scuba's Gear Swap is your opportunity to clean out that dive bag and turn some of the old but useable gear into new gear. Or if you don't have gear— a great way to pick up some “experienced” gear to get started with.

SELLERS: Bring your used equipment that you wish to consign into Adventure Scuba on May 30. Gear must be in usable condition. If you have items that need to be serviced prior to sale, they should be brought in as soon as possible. Carolyn and Mandy will be available to help you you price your items. At the end of the sale, the seller may use 100% of their money towards the purchase of new gear or pay a consignment fee and take the cash and dash. All unsold items must be picked up by June 8. Unclaimed items become property of the store and will be sold to gypsies, etc.

BUYERS: Visit the store during the sale period and pick out your treasures. Selection will range from Wetsuits, BC's, and Regulators to knives, fins and masks. The consignment items are sold “as is” without warranty. Shop early for best selection.

Curacao— A Dutch Treat!

This past February, the gang headed south--way south. Located at 12 degrees latitude, Curacao is as close to the equator as I've ever been. This beautiful desert island is a great place to spend time exploring. It is rich in history- it was a favorite port for slave traders and pirates. It also has a unique European flavor— the architecture is definitely old world and exotic.

The diving is just as colorful as the downtown waterfront buildings. The soft corals were in every color of the rainbow. We were amazed by the amount of fish! The reef is a excellent shape and a photographers wonderland. Some of our favorite dives were the two wrecks that we dove- The Saba and the Tugboat. They were covered with corals and fish. Stop by the shop and check out the video and see what I mean. Visit our website to view the photos from the trip.. Curacao is definitely a place I'd like to visit again.
